Bert La Brucherie, UCLA Coach Addresses Record Number at Lions Dinner

S. M. School Team
Guests At Meeting

Bert La Brucherie, coach of the united, undefeated UCLA Bruins who will meet Illinois New Year's Day in the Rose Bowl, was guest speaker at the Lions club dinner meeting Tuesday night. The Sierra Madre School Touch Football Team which has also played through a successful season was in full attendance with their coach, Tom Morrow. Thirty-five Sierra Madre boys were guests of Lion members.

La Brucherie, a modest, unassuming gentleman who has taken the UCLA's through their greatest season, spent all his previous coaching career at Los Angeles high school where he started as mentor of the lightweight teams in 1929 and worked up to the first squad six years later.

He played half back at UCLA from 1926 through 1928 and was on the first Bruin team to win the Southern Conference title.

La Brucherie said, "I am very glad Burr Baldwin made the All-American team this season. He is a great player. UCLA will win over Illinois New Year's Day. Michigan is the best team, but Illinois is very dangerous because of their very fast backs, Buddy Young, Fullerton, Ryko, and Duffmeier, and also their great quarterback, Perry Moss." He encouraged the establishment of touch football teams because it teaches boys the football fundamentals necessary for playing in prep school and college.

Among other guests was the son of Joe Maple, Dick Maple, who was captain of the Woodrow Wilson Junior high school football team last year and Vern Wickham from the Arcadia Lions.

Ben Goswiler, president, announced December 17 as Ladies' Night, when members and their families will gather for dinner and a social evening at the Woman's clubhouse.

Ward Nursery In Expansion Acct. Growth

Rapid growth of its nursery stock during the past year has forced the Ward Nursery on Mountain Trail Ave. to expand. For the past few days, workmen have been busy clearing out old shrubbery and non-productive trees on the rear part of the property, to make room for the nursery's large stock of camellias, gardenias and azaleas.

Among the varieties of choice camellias now blooming in the Ward lath houses are Pink Perfection, Marchioness of Exeter, and Daikagura. Buds of many other varieties are swelling preparatory to a brilliant display of floral beauty.

Other flowers in the nursery large collection include fuchsias, hibiscus and primroses. The lath houses are literally bulging with cuttings of the more popular varieties of choice flowers.

Antique Shop To Reopen as "Le Griffon"

Purchase of the Morrey Antique Shop at 20 South Baldwin by Mrs. Pearl Nash and sons of Los Angeles, occurred last week with the new owners taking possession, Monday.

Following alterations, the shop will re-open within the next few days under the name "Le Griffon", with a complete line of antique furniture, china and porcelain, sculptured ceramics, hand-loomed linens and rugs, and wood carvings.

Robert A. Nash, who served in the Navy during World War II, and Richard M. Nash, an Army veteran, will be associated with their mother in the new enterprise.

Both Robert Nash and his wife are wood sculptors, and examples of their work will be on display in the shop.

Ceramic sculpturing is the hobby of Mrs. Pearl Nash, whose favorite work is a bust of the late beloved war correspondent, Ernie Pyle. The original of this bust was presented to the Veterans' Hospital at Sawtelle, by Mrs. Nash. The veteran patient who (Continued on page four)

Sees Rare Item In Store Window; Orders by Mail

A visitor to Sierra Madre who saw something in a store window which he wanted, was not deterred by the fact that it was a holiday and that the store was closed.

When the Sierra Madre Hardware store opened for business Monday morning, a card was found thrust under the door with the following message: "Sunday December 1, Dear Sirs: Would you be kind enough to send me C. O. D. the alarm clock in the window. I don't live here, but was looking at property here and saw the clock. Sure need it. The one in the window. Black and silver. Thanks so much, I don't have the price to leave the check. Mail to—"
P. S. He got the clock.

NOTED PAINTER OF SMOKE TREES LOCAL VISITOR

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Marshall and daughter, Gene, or Three Rivers, California, were week end guests of Merrill A. Miller, 674 Orange Drive.

Mr. Marshall, a well-known artist, formerly lived in Sierra Madre, and was one of the first exhibitors in the City Hall gallery. During his residence here, accompanied by Alfred James Dewey, he made many trips to the Southern California deserts, where he developed a technique both in oil and water color, that glorified the Smoke tree.

According to Mr. Dewey, Marshall's Smoke tree paintings represent an achievement reached by few artists. Plans are under way for a local exhibition of his work.

Popular Gift Item Made In Local Plant

A new line of place mats and hot pads in artistic matching colors is now being designed and manufactured by Harre of California, on East Montecito Street. Developed after consulting numerous retailers, the new items are designed as an artistic complement to the modern home's china and ceramic ware. The matching sets are made from pressed cork in seven different combinations including fuchsia, chartreuse and yellow, blue and white, green and white, coral and gray, and yellow and white.

Colors and patterns are superimposed on the cork by a silk-screen process, followed by water-proofing and a special heat treatment.

Although the product has been but recently introduced, orders are already pouring in from throughout the country.

Another new household item being made by the local firm is a stem-pencil note pad holder for the kitchen, made in the form of an apple or a pear, with the pencil forming the stem of the fruit.

Other Harre products include a full line of gift trays distributed throughout the country from Los Angeles to New York and from (Continued on page four)

Woman Guilty of Cruelty to Animals

The California Federation of Animal and Child Protection is given credit for cleaning up one of the most horrible cases of cruelty to animals in Los Angeles county. The local and the Arcadia Chapters brought the case to light. Donald Thayer, a devoted friend of dumb animals, appeared before the court in Arcadia and told of the conditions found on the premises of Mrs. Gladys Nelson of Wilmar. Included were dogs, cats and goats in varying stages of starvation. Some of the dogs were found tied on ropes a few inches long with beds of broken glass to lie on. Some were found in pits with grates over them.

The local Chapter of the Federation is finding homes for many of the animals and if anyone is interested in giving a home to a goat, cat or dog he should call Custer 5-4413.

POSTAL RECEIPTS CONTINUE GAIN

Postal receipts for November at the Sierra Madre post office were $5,252.50, compared with a total of $2,457 for the same month a year ago. Postmaster Thomas R. Durning announced yesterday. This was an increase of 31 per cent over last year.

Santa's pack is brimming over with gifts . . . the Christmas season is under way. There's not a minute to waste. Christmas lists should be complete . . . shopping tours started. Now before the rush . . . before merchandise has been picked through . . . is the time to make selections.

VALUABLE 19th CENTURY DANISH PAINTING HERE

An early 19th century Danish oil painting of Elsinore Castle in Northern Denmark is a possession of Richard S. Jensen of the Sierra Madre Hotel.

Brought to America in 1885 by Mr. Jensen's father, the painting which portrays several farm houses and a Danish windmill on the point of land adjoining Hamlet's burial place, has since become of great value to collectors.

Since the painting, the area has been turned into a park by the Danish government, and all buildings in the picture have been removed, with the exception of Elsinore Castle standing on the shores of the Cattagat, across The Sound from Sweden.

Heaviest Xmas Mail of All Time Is Anticipated

The Post Office Department is urging everyone to shop early and mail early. Postal employees are girding themselves now for what will be the heaviest Christmas mailing in Postal history.

Postmaster Thomas A. Durning today stressed the necessity of proper packing and addressing. Be sure to include the zone number. He warned that hundreds of temporary employees will be utilized this year all over the country and many extras in Sierra Madre, to effect delivery and urged the public to check their house numbers and mail boxes making sure they are plainly visible from the street. This will greatly relieve the burden of the new man and insure better service.

Mail parcels not later than December 10 and greeting cards not later than December 15, for delivery before Christmas.

Frances Robertson Leaving Soon For Bulgarian Duty

Miss Frances C. Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Robertson, 105 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., who left October 12 for Washington, D. C., to report for her orientation course in military attaché office work in Paraguay, writes her parents of a change in her assignment. Instead of in South America, she will leave in a few days on a two year assignment to Bulgaria. Miss Robertson was graduated from U. C. at Berkeley last June.

New Color Naming Contest Announced by Bevan Kilns To Commence December 15

Committeemen Attend Rose Parade Meeting

Alfred James Dewey, veteran designer of Sierra Madre's Rose Parade Float, and Henry W. Burke, attended the annual Participant's Dinner, Monday evening at the Pasadena Athletic Club.

Following the dinner, plans were discussed for the 1947 parade. Harry W. Hurry of Rancho Road, parade chairman, presided at the meeting.

Kiwanians See Paper Making In Color Film

"A River of Paper" was the title of a technicolor film on the Powell River country in British Columbia, enjoyed by members and guests of the Kiwanis club at their luncheon meeting, Tuesday. Showing steps in the manufacture of paper in the giant paper mills on the Powell River, the film outlined the reasons for the critical shortage of newsprint. It was shown through courtesy of the Newsprint Company of Los Angeles.

Bill Estes, chairman of the committee in charge of building the Youth Hut, reported on progress of the Kiwanis project, and stated that Saturday, December 14, had been set aside as completion date.

Dedication of the building is scheduled for 2 p. m. on that date.

A Kiwanis board meeting was announced for the evening of December 12 at the home of Robert Dodge.

Guests at the luncheon were: E. C. Moller of Pasadena; Irving E. Miller of Bellingham, Wash.; J. D. Pauley of Glendale; Homer Pendergraft of Redlands and Paul C. Steward.

Robert Dodge will be the principal speaker at next week's Kiwanis meeting. His subject was announced as "William Allen White, His Life and Times."

Five p.m. today is the deadline for paying the first installment on county taxes.

Awards for Describing New Commercial Glaze

Sierra Madreans will soon have an opportunity to participate in naming a new color of ceramic glaze just perfected by Charles G. Bevan, of the Bevan Kilns on East Montecito Street.

Two years' experimentation went into the new glaze, by Mr. Bevan, who is constantly working on new ceramic designs and colors.

Another of his recently developed glazes was named "Sierra Blue" in honor of its place of manufacture, and Mr. Bevan wishes to give local citizens the privilege of naming the new color which is to grace an entire line of quality pottery.

Samples of the new ceramic color will be on display in downtown store windows beginning about December 15, which will mark the contest's beginning. The ceramic manufacturer said.

Also on display in the same windows will be the award which will be given to the person suggesting the winning name.

Everyone interested in the opportunity of naming a new line of pottery, which will have worldwide distribution, is urged to watch the Sierra Madre NEWS for further announcements, and to watch downtown store windows for samples of the new product.

Needlepoint Artist Does Local Sketch

An artist whose medium is wool and silk yarn, whose easel is an embroidery hoop and who works with a needle instead of a brush, is Mrs. L. A. Borradaile of East Grandview Avenue.

Mrs. Borradaile has some remarkably beautiful examples of her own needle-point work, including a tapestry of her home with the Sierra Madre mountains in the background. This landscape required much time, for the artist waited until she had just the right light conditions before proceeding. Both the flowers surrounding the house, and the mountains, are portrayed in their full range of colors.

A large fireplace screen portrays an English garden viewed through an imposing formal gate.

Other examples of artistic handicraft by this charming Spanish-American lady include chair-covers, cushions and rugs in needle point, in many different designs.

Before turning her talents to needle-point, Mrs. Borradaile was a water color artist. Still hanging in her home are water colors painted many years ago while she was traveling in Italy.

These include scenes in Tormina and Amalfi, and the Trinity Bridge in Florence.

Crocheting is another of her hobbies, and her best example of this work is a pair of crocheted bedspreads, each composed of 765 crocheted wheels.

The interior of the Borradaile home is a tasteful arrangement of priceless antique furniture and high quality reproductions of world famous art.

Her most treasured possession is a statue of the Blessed Virgin which was brought from Spain and placed in the Church of San Felipe de Neri in Albuquerque, when the church was built, early in the 18th century. Years later when it was decided to replace the statue, it was given to Mrs. Borradaile's family, for making the largest contribution toward purchase of the new one.

Her furniture includes a 16th century chest from Florence and other pieces which have been in her family for generations.

Mrs. Borradaile's grandfather came from Spain to settle in Albuquerque, and her father, Ambrosio Armijo, operated a wagon freight line between St. Louis and Albuquerque before the railroads spanned the prairies.

For the past 25 years she has made her home in Sierra Madre, and it was here that her husband, John Borradaile, passed away several years ago.

Before coming here the family lived in Berkeley for seven years, where the three daughters graduated from the University of California.

Mrs. Borradaile is understandably proud of the accomplishments of her daughters, as well as of her grandchildren, and of one great-grandchild.

County taxes not paid by 5 p.m. today will draw a six per cent delinquent penalty.

Reitherman-McMillan Vows Pledged Mid Tropical Setting in Manila Wedding

A romance of the sky culminated November 26 in Manila for a well known local character and a pretty stewardess of the Far Eastern Air Transport Lines. When Wolfgang Reitherman left Sierra Madre last August to become captain on the Oriental DC 4's he met the Chief Stewardess, Miss Yvonne McMillan at Alhambra on his first flight. From this acquaintance a lasting friendship developed which resulted in the wedding last week at the Elwood Presbyterian Church in Manila.

The vows were exchanged at a candlelight service before Rev. Hessel. The bride's gown was ivory satin trimmed with seed pearls. Her veil of finger tip length was held by tiera of flowers and her bouquet was white orchids. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. McMillan of Alhambra, was given away by Eugene Lopez, president of the Transport Lines.

Mr. Lopez gave a wonderful dance-reception at the Air Lines Terminal with orchestral background and profusion of tropical flowers.

Mrs. Reitherman went to the Philippines to establish a training school and prepare Filipino girls to become Air Line stewardesses. She has also installed the food service for the lines.

Mr. Reitherman, brother of Miss Margaret Reitherman of West Sierra Madre Blvd. is on the International flights to China, Japan, Siam, India and the United States.

Following the wedding ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Reitherman made their routine flight to San Francisco and came to Sierra Madre for the week end. They returned to Manila Monday evening.

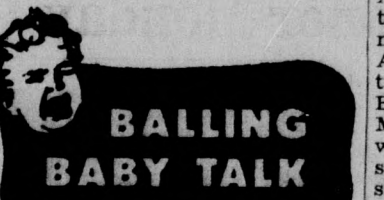

Former Teacher Weds Today in San Pedro

Word has been received of the forthcoming marriage of Edith Adele Davidson and Wilford Charles Beilech, Miss Davidson will be remembered as the 7th grade girls' and physical education teacher at the Sierra Madre school from 1941 to 1945, at which time she left to join the Waves. She was beloved by all her pupils and when she returned here as a Pharmacist 1st class for the 1944 graduation there was quite an ovation among the students. The wedding is to take place December 5th in San Pedro.

Van Iersel-Spence Vows at St. Rita's

The marriage of Violet Darlene Spence of Monrovia and Louis Van Iersel of Sierra Madre took place at St. Rita's Church at one o'clock November 23rd with Fr. Leo officiating. They were attended by the brother of the groom, John, and Mrs. Van Iersel, in the presence of members of the family and a few close friends.

A Thanksgiving dinner at the Leslie B. Wynne home, 273 Sturtevant Drive, included Mr. and Mrs. Alfred James Dewey, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Wynne and daughter and Bernard Wynne.

BALLING BABY TALK

BY MAXINE BALLING

IF THIS FOG GETS ANY WORSE it'll be RAIN, and then you'll be in to get your youngsters a reversible raincoat, of which we have some nice new ones at the Balling Baby Shop. . . all wool brown, green or Navy on one side, and water repellent cloth on the other. Sizes 7 to 14, $15.95. If your little girl prefers a rain cape with a hood, and she wears size 4, 5, 6 or 6X, we have some cute red and blue plaids for only $2.50. (They make nice gifts. . . and we'll be open Saturday nights until Christmas).

WONDERFUL NEW TOY is a plastic boat that you can wind up, and its propeller actually pushes it along. It's over a foot long, smart maroon and white job, and only $2.25. (We'll be open Saturday nights until Christmas. If it isn't convenient for you to come in during the day).

CHRISTMAS isn't Christmas without a nice big musical ball. We have some cute pink-and-blue ones with a very cheery tinkle tune for $1.25. . . and we're open Saturday nights now so you can sneak in and see them after the kiddies have gone to bed.

MOST SENSIBLE invention we've seen this year is a new type nursery gate that doesn't have to be screwed onto the door or anything. It has padded brackets that fit around the door or stair rail just like hands, adjustable for any doorway or stair rail. It doesn't scratch the woodwork, and there are no pinching parts to hurt little fingers. When you're not using it for a gate, you can turn the bottom brackets down and it becomes a standing drying rack for baby's clothes. It's finished in white, blue or pink enamel. $5.95.

The Balling Baby Shop is located at 401 1/2 South Myrtle, in Monrovia. We wrap your purchases for gifts or mailing. . . and oh yes, WE'RE OPEN SATURDAY NIGHTS UNTIL CHRISTMAS!

Aid and Adviser to Haile Selassie on American Leave Visits Local Relatives

Interesting dinner guests recently at the Kenneth B. Thompson home, 100 Lowell Ave., were the Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Hanson, home on leave at Glendale with Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson from their missionary and royal duties at Addis Ababa in Ethiopia.

Mrs. Hanson, sister of Mr. Thompson, has served the Negus Haile Selassie and his empress, the Negusta, as aide and adviser on American affairs for the past 7 years, and is virtually the third most important person in Ethiopia. She superintends the imperial household, writes the menus, buys the Empress's clothes and has many other chores connected with the management of the palace and its staff. She has introduced strawberry shortcake, angel food cake, potato salad and cold cuts to the Ethiopian diet.

The Hansons went to Addis Ababa many years ago as missionaries for the Seventh Day Adventist church, remaining through the Italian invasion and nursing the Ethiopian wounded. After a 1939 furlough they returned to Addis Ababa when the British arrived. It was then that Mrs. Hanson accepted her job with the royal family. Rev. Hanson has a hospital and boys mission school at Addis Ababa, where Mrs. Hanson finds time also to work.

Conserso Guests of Woman's Society at Tuesday Luncheon

The Woman's Society of the Congregational Church will have a Missionary luncheon Tuesday, December 10 at the church, the hostesses to be the Lydian circle. The women will meet in the morning to sew for the Children's Community Plaza Home after which luncheon will be served, followed by a Christmas program in the afternoon. The Conserso are to be guests of the Society.

Silver Lining to Each Cloud Even Fog

Tom Neale, one of our local Nimrods, is very proud of the luck he and his partner from San Marino had at their hunting club north of Bakersfield this past week-end. Beside getting their limit of ducks for Saturday and Sunday each man brought down a beautiful Canadian honker, weighing 14 pounds. It is a rare goose to get as it usually flies beyond gun's range but these living low because of the fog. Mr. Neale was so thrilled with the outcome that he returned to the scene of his success Tuesday to remain until Wednesday or Thursday.

Night Section of Woman's Club Sends Christmas to Rancho Los Amigos Homes

The Night Section of the woman's club are having their Christmas party next Monday evening, December 9th when they will take this time to pass the Christmas spirit on to the less fortunate. Toys and articles of clothing will be brought that evening for the Rancho Los Amigos Home. The home located at Torrance, maintains a permanent home for 41 crippled and physically handicapped children. Many convalescing polio cases from General Hospital have been cared for at the home. The gifts will be wrapped and delivered December 19th by Roselle Wilson and Mrs. Wm. Stoddart.

S. M.'s Rose Parade Entry Endangered By Disinterest In Drive For Float Funds

Members of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club voted yesterday to contribute $25 to the local Float Fund, but Float Committee Chairman Eddie D. Robertson announced that on the whole, response to the drive for funds to finance Sierra Madre's float has not measured up to expectations.

Unless sufficient funds are forthcoming immediately, Sierra Madre may not be able to participate in the Tournament of Roses parade, Mr. Robertson said.

The Sierra Madre float has always been financed by voluntary contributions, and it is inconceivable that citizens should allow the community to fail to participate in this year's event.

It will not be possible for the committee to contract the expenses necessary for float construction, without definite assurance that the funds will be forthcoming.

Contributions may be made to the Float Fund at the City Clerk's office City Hall; at the Bank of Sierra Madre; and to Frank A. Spencer of 139 West Orange Grove Avenue.

ROUND THE TOWN

◆ Major and Mrs. R. W. Miller, 900 Audubon Way, celebrated their 11th wedding anniversary Sunday with Major Miller's father, Alexander Miller of Lewis-town, Missouri, who is visiting here for the winter.
◆ Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schrader, 462 Woodland Drive, spent the holiday at a family party in San Marino.

◆ The Sierra Madre Campfire Girls and Blue Birds will participate in the Camp Fire Bazaar held in Pasadena tomorrow. The funds raised at the Bazaar will help to build the lodge at Camp Chiquita in Altadena.

◆ Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester K. Layton, 291 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., for the day on Saturday were Mrs. Layton's uncle, Daniel Coffelt, visiting here from Jefferson City, Missouri, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Parks of Inglewood.

◆ Mr. and Mrs. John Powell and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glass, 800 E. Grandview Ave., spent the holiday week-end at the Deep Well guest ranch at Palm Springs.

◆ Mr. and Mrs. George Northrup, 468 Woodland Drive, entertained Thanksgiving day with a wild goose dinner for Mr. and Mrs. George Northrup, Sr. of Pasadena.

◆ Friends of Mrs. J. P. Langstaff will be glad to learn that she is recuperating rapidly at her home, 415 Sturtevant Drive, from a recent illness. Her daughter, Mrs. Allen Wilson, who with her husband has been residing at the Langstaff home for the past six months, plans to move to her newly completed home at San Gabriel.

◆ A family Thanksgiving party and dinner at the George Goldwater home at 600 Woodland Drive included 14 guests from Los Angeles. Participating in the day's events of music, dancing and motion pictures of family scenes, were Mrs. Helen Newmark, Nathan, Harland, Marlene and Adele Goldwater.

Hundreds Attended the Annual "Thank You Party" at British Home on Manzanita, Sunday

Cosmo Players at St. Rita's School In Comedy Tonight

"Al Haddon and the Lamp" presented by the Cosmo Players of Los Angeles promises to be a very entertaining affair at St. Rita's School Hall this evening. The Holy Name Society is sponsoring the comedy.

Young people today are marrying at an earlier age than did their grandparents, according to an expert speaking at the University of California.

Hundreds of visitors from outlying districts attended the annual "Thank you party" at the British Old People's Home, 647 Manzanita Ave., Sunday afternoon, all bringing gifts of food and funds to restock the pantry shelves.

Mrs. Raymond Stevens, president of the home, received the guests and Mrs. W. H. Holt was in charge of tea arrangements.

Mrs. John Paton, state president of Daughters of the British Empire, was present for the occasion and British Council General J. E. M. Carvell was the speaker of the day.

The home is conducted under the auspices of Daughters of the British Empire and, since it receives no help from any community chest, is dependent entirely on friends, organizations and its various chapters for support. Established here in 1931, the Sierra Madre home is the only such home in the west, the others being in Chicago and New York City. Two units, the H. K. Foster and the Florence Shafer, have been added to the original unit to accommodate the 15 guests, but a long waiting list points to the need for an endowment and new buildings.

The John Ruskin chapter of this city, with Mrs. A. E. Pulling as regent, is very active in work of maintaining the home. The first organizational meeting of this chapter was held at the home of Mrs. Alice Sedgman July 9, 1931 and was actually formed in September of the same year with the late Mrs. Carey E. Pagge as its first regent.

Mrs. Edna McGuinn, the matron, will be happy to show visitors about the home at any time. Fresh fruits in season would be especially acceptable to the guests.

Applications of new students for admission to Pasadena Junior College will be accepted beginning Monday, December 2nd for the semester opening February 3. Each applicant must present an official transcript from the school last attended, showing grades and honorable dismissal. All applicants are requested to go to window number one in the records office in the center building where they will fill out the application blank and request an appointment with a counselor. Notification of such appointment will be mailed as soon as possible.

Because of a very heavy enrollment and the fact that students already in attendance must be programmed first, new applicants other than eleventh graders should plan on a late afternoon and evening schedule during their first semester.

"God of Creation" Film at School Auditorium Dec. 9th

Vivid full-color scenes from astronomy and natural science are featured in "The God of Creation," sound motion picture to be shown at 8 o'clock Monday evening, December 9, at the Sierra Madre School, sponsored by the Christ for Sierra Madre Committee, produced in Moody Institute, by Irwin A. Moon, Sc. D.

In the opening section of "The God of Creation" the audience takes a trip to the stars by means of solar photographs taken through the giant 100-inch telescope of Mt. Wilson Observatory, and views complex gyrations of our own solar system.

Lapse-time photography is utilized to demonstrate the beauties of natural science. The illusion of flower buds developing into full-blown blossoms in a few seconds is created through this time-compressing photo technique.

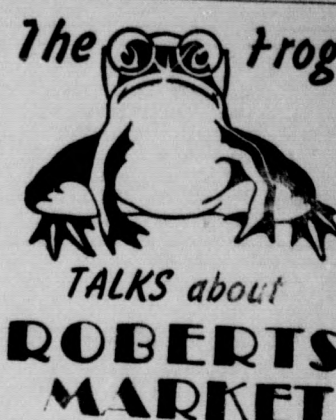

The metamorphosis of a caterpillar through the various stages from the worm to butterfly, and pollination of flowers are seen on the screen in full color.

Believed to be the first of their kind are the natural color pictures of protosynthesis, the mysterious food-manufacturing process resulting from the action of sunlight on green leaves.

Through photomicrography the audience peers into the microscopic world of a drop of water and observes the complexity of tiny organisms, enlarged more than a million times.

TALKS about ROBERTS MARKET

—and Things—
To make a prairie it takes a clover
And one bee, —
One clover, and a bee,
And revere it.
The reverie alone will do
If bees are few.
—Emily Dickinson.
To make for rev'rey let's take a lily
And one frog.
Two fishes and a bog,
A quiet dog,
Then sit and dream of what might be—
That's reverie!
—The Green Frog.

HO-HUM-M-m-m! I always feel bloated, silly and dreamy after the festivities of Thanksgiving and Christmas. Hence you need not be surprised at my giving birth to something like the above at this time.

DID I SAY CHRISTMAS? Gee, that reminds me that the more or less pleasant obligations of gift shopping are treading on our heels. When this blurb meets your eye there will be only 15 shopping days left in which to buy your Christmas tree, your turkey, your cranberries, your fruit cake, AND your presents for those you love; including, of course, your distant Aunt Sophie—the one with the 1946 Cadillac—Remember?

CHRISTMAS SHOULD BE FOR CHILDREN—and Frogs—I think! There is too much thoughtless, obligatory giving between adults: neckties and perfumes for instance. But if folks would give their friends the kind of things I have to offer, such as Kramer's Luscious Dates, Santa Claus Bags of Diamond Walnuts, half or full Boxes of Citrus Fruits, and our special packs of Baskets and Boxes of either fancy Fruits or fine Groceries—well, these things are always acceptable to ANYONE! Much better, I think, than a doubtful tie or an abhorrent perfume.

FROM THE FOREGOING, YOU MIGHT BE LED to believe that we want to help you with your Christmas gift problems. You are right! And to further this idea, I assure you that we will pack, wrap and ship to your order anything we have on display, or anything we can pack to suit you. Just tell RAY or CURLY what you want. Can I say more?

OCCASIONALLY IT OCCURS TO ME that you folks will think that I am trying to sell groceries, vegetables and meats. WELL, I AM! When the Home of the Green Frog ceases to represent the "best at its best", I am through with this job and will have to revert to flicking flies and mosquitoes and such out of the air for a living! See?

HEARING THE COMPLIMENTS ON OUR Thanksgiving turkeys, my chest swells with as much pride as if they had come from MY department! But after all I did furnish you with most of the rest of the Feast, didn't I? And weren't those cranberries nice? MOM served raw cranberry salad, little creamed onions and fresh lima beans with her turkey. How did you like her recipe for Turkey basted in Sherry with Walnut Dressing? Yummy, eh?

THE WORDS GROW LONG AND THE TIME grows short, so here is a condensation: 1. My department is chock full of the finest assortment of fruits and vegetables you will find anywhere. 2. The meat cases now are filled with choice cuts of all kinds of meats—beef, pork, lamb and veal—and usually there is enough bacon for all of you. 3. As to the grocery department, CURLY says that besides the usual complete stock of fancy and staple foods, we have Knudsen's XXX Cream for whipping, fine big-hole Wisconsin Swiss Cheese (especially priced this week), R & N Camembert Cheese, Jolly Time Pop Corn, Tuna, Graber's Tree-Ripened Olives, Hand Dipped Chocolates, Fly Swatters, Candles, Clothes Lines, BEER, and SOMETIMES Mayonnaise and Paper Goods. HO-HUM-M-m-m-m!

Behold and see as you pass by. As you are now so once was I. As I am now you soon will be. Prepare for death and follow me.

Tuberculosis State Death Rate Decreased

Tuberculosis associations in California, now conducting their annual Christmas Seal sale, are taking free miniature chest X-rays at the rate of more than 400,000 a year.

Nineteen of the sixty local associations own or have ordered and await delivery of equipment for this service. Smaller associations rent equipment for conducting mass X-ray surveys, either from the state association which operates two machines, or from other local associations.

The goal of the associations is the X-raying of all adults in the state. Eradication of tuberculosis as a public health menace is based on prevention of the spread of infection and discovery and treatment of the disease in its early stages, authorities agree.

Public education has been and still is the principal weapon since the organization of the anti-tuberculosis movement. In California the tuberculosis death rate has been reduced from 205 deaths per 100,000 population in 1910 to 40.7 deaths in 1945. All of the services and educational materials of the tuberculosis associations are free to the public and are paid for by Christmas Seal revenue.

Ballots For C. of C. Posts Being Mailed

Ballots for the election of new members to the board of directors are being mailed to members of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce this week.

This step was decided upon at a meeting of the Chamber Monday evening, when the following names were placed in nomination for the five directorships to be filled: Edward Burgess, Noren Eaton, William Estes, Ralph Hurwit, J. C. Loomis, Jr., C. E. Marshall, Tom Schwartz, Harold J. Spears, Pearl V. Steinberger, and Inez Tunison.

Those elected will serve on the directorate during the ensuing year along with five hold-over members. The election will take place at the Chamber's next meeting December 16.

Dorothy Manor In Los Angeles December 10th

Dorothy Maynor, celebrated Negro soprano, is scheduled to appear in one of her noted song recitals, Tuesday evening, December 10th at Philharmonic Auditorium under the management of L. E. Behrmer.

Today she sings with equal ease in English, French, Italian and German. The range of her voice is remarkable, going from brilliant and breathtaking high notes to the dark, deep ones characteristic of her race.

Dorothy Maynor will be assisted by Ludwig Bergmann, pianist and accompanist and also Kalman Bloch, Clarinetist.

Civic Club Gives Thanksgiving Program And Favors at Olive View Sanatorium

The Sierra Madre Civic Club is very much into its Christmas activities. Last Monday night at the Lorne Pratt home Thanksgiving favors were made for the Olive View Home. The club has adopted a ward at the hospital and special attention and entertainment is provided for the girls at holiday times. The patients are girls from 9 to 16 years of age and Mrs. Gwen Dewey, president says the work has a great fascination.

Tuesday evening before Thanksgiving a group including Mrs. Dewey, Gay Whitting, Virginia Pratt, Elizabeth Doty, Jean Edwards Sixta, Robert Bettencourt and Mr. and Mrs. Don Parker spent the evening at the Sanatorium. Mr. and Mrs. Parker provided the entertainment. Mr. Parker at the piano and Mrs. Parker gave a travelogue of her European trip last summer, illustrated with colored slides.

Where To Go In "Fiestaland" for December

Southern California is fast making a postwar "comeback" as America's "Fiestaland," the All-Year Club reported today.

The nearly 1000 flower shows, historical and holiday sports spectacles held here annually in prewar days gained the Southland world-wide fame and were of tremendous value as tourist lures.

Some survived the war and numerous others are now bobbing up again, according to the All-Year Club. Some 28 are scheduled for December, including:

Pageant of Pigeons, world's biggest pigeon show, Los Angeles County Fairgrounds, Pomona, Dec. 5 - 8;

Calceico Border Days, frontier celebration in conjunction with Mexican city of Mexicali, Dec. 15 to 27;

Lompoc Mission Day, celebrating 159 birthday of La Purisima Mission with fiesta in Santa Barbara County, Dec. 8;

Tournament of Roses Queen Coronation and Ball, Pasadena Civic Auditorium, Dec. 26;

Christmas yacht regatta, Newport-Balboa Harbor, Dec. 27 - 29;

Santa Annual Frolic, huge Disney characters, floats and bands in 30-block parade at Santa Ana, New Year's Eve.

Visitors and residents alike obtain information on these events from the All-Year Club's Free Community Visitors' Bureau, 517 6th Street, Los Angeles.

New Conserso Officers

New Conserso officers elected last week were: Mrs. Edith Dams, president; Mrs. Charlotte Bush, program chairman; Mrs. Ruth Schmidt, ways and means chairman; Mrs. Dorothy Oakley, secretary; Mrs. Betty Osgood, treasurer; Mrs. Betty Summers, hospitality chairman; and Mrs. Dorothy Jenkins, publicity chairman.

Popular Gift

Seattle to Miami. The trays, like the place mats, are manufactured in standard colors that easily match the furnishings in most modern households.

Harre of California is a partnership of two brothers, R. J. Simpson, who is a veteran of World War II; and H. R. Simpson, who served in the U. S. marines prior to the war, but worked as a technician during the war, his work being classified as highly essential.

With the war's end, the two brothers began manufacturing gift items in a small way, in Pasadena with their shop located in the family garage. Early this year they leased the rear portion of the Bunsie-of-California building on East Montecito, which made possible a roomier site for operations.

Doing their own commercial designing, shop work and book keeping, the Simpson brothers are free from labor trouble, and from many other by-products of modern large scale manufacturing. They could, of course, obtain many times their present orders. But this would mean expanding on a vast scale and this they are neither prepared for nor are they interested in doing.

They are finding Sierra Madre's small industrial section an ideal location for a business such as theirs.

PROOF OF THE PUDDING

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating" — and with these eatin' 's wonderful! For this approachin' holiday season and a v times ahead, let's start now to plan for those extra-special days. And how better could we start plans for traditional days than with those traditional dishes—and using new and modern recipes. Choose between puddings hot and mudding, cold, just like "meas porridge." Steam them, chill them, bake them—make them elaborate or simple. Puddings can be so different—dressed-up bread, and nutty and fruity kind, or a new luscious chilled one. Your home can be the brightest "Holiday House" of the neighborhood for friends and family with the help of these wintertime desserts.

DATE DELICIOUS

1 tsp. gelatin
1 C. cold water
1 C. dates
1 1/2 C. milk
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 C. grapefruit
1 tsp. grated orange rind
1 C. chopped nuts
1/2 tsp. vanilla extract
1/2 C. evaporated milk, chilled and whipped

Soak gelatin in cold water for five minutes. Slice dates, add milk and salt; scald. Add soaked gelatin. Stir over hot water until gelatin is dissolved. Remove from flame; add grapefruit, orange rind, nuts and vanilla. Cool until mixture begins to stiffen, then fold in evaporated milk which has been chilled and whipped. Chill well before serving.

OLD-FASHIONED BREAD

2 C. stale bread cut in cubes
2 eggs, slightly beaten
2 tsp. sugar
1/4 tsp. nutmeg
2 C. milk
1/2 C. raisins
Cinnamon

Place cut stale bread in a loaf baking dish, 9 inches x 5 inches. Mix beaten eggs, sugar, nutmeg and milk and pour over bread cubes. Add raisins and stir. Dust top of mixture with cinnamon. Set baking dish in pan of water. Bake at 350 F. for 1 hour and 15 minutes or until the mixture will not adhere to the blade of a knife inserted in the center.

"Both sides up, please." 2-5027

Over 50 Floats and 20 Bands to Participate in Tournament Rose Parade

Between 50 and 60 floats, nearly 20 marching bands and approximately 200 equestrians will form the 58th Annual Tournament of Roses Parade on New Year's Day 1947, according to an announcement made yesterday by President William F. Welsh. Fifty-two floats have been entered in the parade so far this year and it is anticipated that six or eight more will enter before the parade entries close.

Elmer Wilson, Chairman of the Music Committee, announced that approximately 20 outstanding bands will take part in the parade. Selected from hundreds of applications, the bands come from all parts of the state and this year the Camas High School Band of Camas, Washington, will participate. Selection of bands is based on musical ability, uniforms and marching ability.

At least three large equestrian groups or posses will take part in the event, in addition to hundreds of individual riders who are preparing their silver equipment for New Year's Day. It is not uncommon for silver equipment for one mount to be valued in excess of four thousand dollars. Leon Kingsley, Equestrian Chairman, has received word from Contra Costa County, Long Beach Mounted Police and the Los Angeles Sheriff's posse that they will be in attendance on January 1st.

Of the entries received so far 28 represent cities, states or counties; nine represent commercial or business organizations, and 15 either patriotic or civic organizations.

County Tax Rate $1,884 Higher Than During the War

First installment of local tax bills which Los Angeles county property owners must pay by December 5 includes a $1,884 rate for general county purposes, which is levied on the $3,299,574.60 assessed valuation of taxable property in the county. California Taxpayers' association said today.

Last year's tax bills included a $1,384 general county purposes rate, levied on $2,978,392,865 of assessed valuation throughout the county.

The county tax rate is only one of the local government rates which is levied on property. In addition, rates are levied by school districts, cities and special districts. No state rate on property is levied in California, although such a rate is permitted by the constitution.

Generally speaking, property tax bills throughout California are higher for the current fiscal year than they were during the war years. Tax rates are higher in many places and this, coupled with increases in assessed valuations in a majority of communities, results in heavier demands on the people.

Higher government pay levels and increasing numbers of employees, together with higher prices for materials and supplies, result in higher taxes on the people.

LOCAL BUILDING PERMITS DROP BELOW OCTOBER

Local building permit valuations during November took a sharp drop below those for the preceding month. Total value for permits to build issued during the month just ended was $43,000, as compared with $69,217 for October 1946 and $36,200 for November, a year ago.

Value of permits issued during the first 11 months of 1946 was $749,923, a sharp gain over the similar period last year when building valuations were $412,485.

TALKING OURSELVES INTO IT?

The warning by Civilian Production Administrator Small that we may be talking ourselves into a depression should make us pause and think.

Said he, "If these pessimistic forecasts are repeated often enough people will cut down their plans and start retrenching. This is what I call talking ourselves into a depression."

Figures compiled by Mr. Small's agency show that industrial activity continues at a high level in spite of shortage of materials and unsettled labor conditions in many areas. But the recent decline in the stock market has somewhat upset the boom psychology throughout the country, and the talk of depression has been on the increase.

The economic cycle always has had its ups and downs and probably always will have. But we should neither ignore the possibility of a depression within the next few years nor should we live in constant dread of one. In other words, we should avoid careless spending of our money or the needless incurring of debt. At the same time however, we should not let fear prevent normal business expansion or necessary expenditures for personal or household purposes.

As far as California is concerned there is little occasion to talk depression. Although we have a substantially increased population to keep employed, we also have a vastly expanded industrial empire to create jobs. Then too, we are not too much dependent on any one type of industry. Farming, manufacturing, mining, lumbering, land and sea commerce give our State a remarkable variety and balance in its economic structure. All this should add up to continued economic progress.

So, let us not talk ourselves into a depression but, rather, let us work unceasingly for still greater prosperity.

NO INFLATION

An old store account book in Greensburg, Pennsylvania, which dates back to the 1840's reveals that eggs cost only four cents a dozen in those days. Apparently the hens of that era hadn't heard about that thing called inflation.

Should MAN live as long as an Elephant?

In proportion to the time required to attain maturity, man's life-span is brief as that of many animals. Scientists declare that we humans should rightfully reach an average age of one hundred years. Belatedly, they are centering increased attention upon the problems of old age.

Not only should man live longer, but he should live a richer, more abundant life, free from the many hampering ills common to advancing years. Already, medical science has done much to make middle-age and the sunset-time of life a pleasanter and more productive period. You owe it to yourself and family to take full advantage of the aids that are now becoming more readily available.

To the already important scientific equipment on Mt. Wilson may be added something entirely different but perhaps even more spectacular. It is said that a wireless station is to be built on the peak, in an endeavor to establish communication across the Pacific. It is claimed that the stations at Los Angeles and San Diego have detected a message sent out from the station at Kobo, Japan, but efforts to establish regular communications have failed.

Two huge dogs, said to have belonged at the Villa at one time but now disowned by everybody, played havoc in the rabbit pen of the Flint boys Sunday morning. When Mrs. Flint returned from church she found the two dogs had broken through the fence and devoured the nine Belgian hares. It will not be healthy for those dogs to venture in that neighborhood again for there is a loaded gun waiting for them.

AROUND AND ABOUT

By Edward Lloyd Voorhees

SCOTLAND—Glasgow's other side

Like most great cities the world over, Glasgow presents striking contrasts to the casual sightseer and student alike. Half-die shipyards, appalling slums, and ragged newsboys by no means make up a fair picture of this third largest city in Great Britain, the commercial and industrial metropolis of Scotland. Like other centers of power, wealth, and cultural pursuits it has its massive and spectacular architecture of institutions and bridges. In George Square as one faces east he is mightily impressed by the central municipal building, a great square palace four stories high in the sumptuous style of the Venetian renaissance, with a massive tower rising above the center and two domed turrets at either corner of its west end. Inside, the grand staircase, the entrance hall, the great reception rooms, council chamber, and banquet hall have seldom been outdone for magnificence. Its cost was about $3,000,000 in 1887 when money was still literally money in purchasing power.

Another proud and massive building, across the corner and facing the south side of the same square is the General Post Office, which faces the square from the west. The huge Royal Exchange presents its classic portico of a double row of Corinthian columns, a century-old monument to its Glasgow architect, David Hamilton. This meeting place for merchants and for their exchange of pertinent business facts contains a "news room" that is 60 feet wide, 130 feet long, and 130 feet high. Plenty of breathing space, too, for Dame Rumor between its busy floor and the richly adorned roof resting upon its noble Corinthian pillars. Just behind this, but facing upon the important thoroughfare of Buchanan Street, is David Hamilton's Western Club House. All in all, it's a fine, solid and handsome civic center of business, an eloquent monument to what Thomas Carlyle once called John Ruskin?—somewhat petulantly called the Gospel of Getting-On.

But we are not to imagine that all the fine monuments in Glasgow are erected to Mammon. Far from it. The Children of Light and the workers of the Un- seen have also their temples; for the Scot is, if given half a chance, an ardent lover of learning and a firm believer in his highly individual God. In visible testimony to these facts he is no whit behind the men of other nations in building adequate housing for both—though one might be safe in saying that in all grades of education he is likely to place more emphasis, more seriousness, and more honor on the teaching staff and the scholarly standards of teacher and pupil, and less on expensive buildings and luxurious lounges for the students than prevails in lush America. The University of Glasgow appears to be adequately housed, however, growing and moving from one site to another since its foundation by Bishop Turnbull under authorization of Pope Nicholas in 1450. Since 1864 its compact group of finely proportioned buildings with tall central tower stands atop Gilmore Hill, the best situation in Glasgow. Easily accessible to the city, yet "far from the madding crowd," it faces south over the vast grassy and wooded slopes of Kelvingrove Park and the river Kelvin—both named, I hazard the guess, for Lord William Kelvin, the illustrious Scottish mathematician and physicist. Other special schools and technical colleges abound in Glasgow, and the humanitarian institutions include various endowed hospitals, asylums, and orphanages for all classes and conditions of man. In Kelvingrove Park is also a huge and sumptuous museum and art gallery for the public. The merchants and manufacturers of Glasgow, besides being interested in golf and curling and chambers of commerce, have for long time taken an active and pocketbook interest in art and artists—they seem to "have time" for everything—and their liberality is given credit for the fact that some fifty years ago the younger Scottish painters broke away from traditional art and came back from their Paris studios to found the "Glasgow school" of painting. There are several other art galleries throughout the city, and an amazing number of public, semi-public, and specialized technical libraries.

Glasgow also has dozens of monuments and statues in marble and granite to its public men—averaging out about as ugly or as tolerable, judged by our present standards of taste, as those of most other British or American cities—including Ritchie's colossal carving of Sir Walter Scott a-top a fluted column up-thrust 80 feet into the lowering clouds of Scottish mist. For amusement there are big theatres and variety halls aplenty, a circus, a hippodrome, four great concert halls, public football grounds, and a zoo where fascinated crowds may study the ways and faces of the once wild animals, including those of their own reputed arboreal ancestors—even as you and I. It would seem, then, that the Glaswegian with a shilling or even less in his pocket, once his dinner is paid for, can have for himself a fairish go at sight-seeing—even if he takes the Missus along. And he has at least seven fine bridges for crossing the Clyde.

Glasgow is well-churched, but because of the dour taste of the Covenanters and their distrust of beauty, only those kirks which have been built during the present century show distinction in architecture. With one exception—the Cathedral, for its beginnings seem to go as far back as 1115 A.D. It overlooks the city and the Clyde, 100 feet below, and is named St. Mungo's, (meaning "dear friend") the name given by St. Servanus to St. Kentigern, the patron saint of Edinburgh, between the vicinity of which place and that of Glasgow the sainted Christian man passed his life in the 6th century, more or less in continual strife with or hiding from, the pagan King Morken and his family. And today St. Mungo's monument, this cathedral so beautiful in the simplicity of its early English style, with its tower and spire rising 225 feet above its hilltop eminence, dominates the northern horizon as one looks up across Glasgow from the river Clyde below.

Neither mules nor men kick and pull at the same time.

Letters To The Editor

Sierra Madre,
December 1, 1946.

To the Editor:

The City Council of Sierra Madre is to be congratulated on the now apparent wisdom and foresight of its action, at its June 25th meeting, in placing what was then the acute problem of the town's lost, strayed, or unlicensed pets in the hands of a Humane Supervisor resident in Sierra Madre. Under almost any condition this method would seem more logical than depending upon the occasional or intermittent visit of an official dog-catcher from a neighboring city, whose necessary method of gathering up all the dogs out of bounds on that particular day and taking them to a sort of foreign "prison" miles away, often "Incommunicado" as their owners, naturally had caused acute agitation in the breasts of our citizens who were specifically involved. Yet this, the writer understands, was the previous method followed. Only an adult or a child who has at some time owned a dog or a cat can appreciate the sense of loss and apprehension when the beloved animal suddenly disappears.

However, since the City Council's appointment in June of Perlin J. Catter of this city as Humane Supervisor, an action ably supplemented by the voluntary and pioneering assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thayer, our community exhibits a spirit decidedly more tranquil and amiable in the important aspects of the touchy subject of ambulatory pets. The enthusiastic interest of school children, teachers, Scouts, and other citizens has been aroused and they have rendered very great help and intelligent co-operation in reporting lost and strayed and neglected animals at the City Hall or at the Public School or to Mrs. Thayer. Thus, also, the local ordinances concerning the licensing of dogs and the collecting of dog license fees are being properly enforced from the new Humane Supervisor's office in City Hall, and other pet services too numerous to mention are now being performed promptly and properly.

It is understood by the writer that the actual possible expense to us tax payers for these combined services is balanced or exceeded by the aggregate amount of the legal license money collected by the Humane Supervisor under the City Council's authorization, and so it is hoped that the present arrangement, which has been on a trial basis since June 25th, will now be placed on a permanent basis by the City Council, or at least renewed for another year, when it presently comes up for action by the City Fathers.

It is probable that the members of the City Council will not consider it a disservice if other citizens of Sierra Madre express their vocal or written opinions on this matter during this current month. Certainly the dumb animals—"dumb" only in the more favorable meaning of that word—will have reason to be grateful if their human neighbors and owners break silence in their defense and only those people who love animals should be allowed to deal with them.

Very truly yours,
Edward Lloyd Voorhees.

BLAST WRECK SCHOOL . . . Crowds of anxious parents and volunteer rescue workers gathered quickly at the Baroda consolidated school at Baroda, Mich., following a boiler explosion in the basement of the school which killed one child and injured at least 16 others. When reports were first received at Chicago rescue planes with medical supplies were rushed to the scene.

IN THE GOOD OLD WINTER TIME . . . They are traveling a mile a minute on their water skis at Cypress Gardens, Fla., but Bill Sizle, who hails from Anaheim, Calif., (and if this be treason, make the most of it) finds time to put "the eye" on Nancy Stille, Florida aquatic star. If the California chamber of commerce wants to know why Bill is vacationing in Florida, away from his own sun-kissed balliwick, the Florida chamber of commerce will answer.

POLICE BLOTTER

An honest boy brought in a shirt with two one dollar bills in the pocket . . . Boys throwing rocks at passing cars. Very dangerous practice . . . Children annoying a gardener. Must be in the air . . . Investigation of someone tampering with an auto . . . Barking dog . . . Two adults in a car arouse curiosity and the cops are called . . . Children left alone at the Theatre. Parents failed to show up to pick them up. Another case of separated couples. Poor kids . . . Officer Udell received one of those hurry up calls for the ambulance. Baby about to be born and the father about to have convulsions. Baby was born and healthy. Father will survive, the last report stated . . . Missing person . . . "Man Down". And he WAS. Found crossways on a neighbor's driveway with a bottle of wine under his arm . . . A man hammering again . . . Car out of gas . . . A message delivered . . . An Amnesia victim brot to the station . . . Racing cars along narrow streets arouse the indignation of neighbors and also the cops. Reproval was in accordance . . . Dog bite . . . Dog Barking . . . Chunn stops a gas leak for a householder . . . Truant Case reported . . . DOGS, DOGS, DOGS! . . . Petty Theft . . . That suspicious man will be a fireman trying to sell tickets. Don't shoot him . . . Lost dog. The cops might wish they were all lost . . . Dog chases a boy . . . Malicious Mischief . . . A cat poisoned . . . Malicious mischief again. This time, the offense could have resulted in something very, very serious . . . Woman hits a boy on the head with a rake . . . Too many chickens in too small a place. Health Department of the County to look after this condition.

There may be a great deal of talk nowadays of how wonderful it would be to have steaks and beef steaks in plenty, but, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica, pork is the most popular meat in the American diet.

Sierra Madre News,
Editor.

You have always taken a great deal of interest in Sierra Madre and have done a great deal for the good of the community and what it stands for. I hope you can find space for this letter in your paper as I am also interested in Sierra Madre and the people who have devoted their time, experience and also given financial aid to our city and its people for many years.

I have had the privilege of living here for the past 14 years, and during that time have made many fine friends, and one group I have always held in very high esteem is the Sierra Madre Fire Department. I doubt if a finer group could be found.

I have been in a position to observe their efficiency as firemen, their benevolences and their desire to help the less fortunate families. I have noticed their keen interest in making small children happy by giving Easter parties on Easter and a Christmas tree on Christmas with hundreds of stockings filled with candy, nuts etc., and last but not least the toys they gave youngsters, who may otherwise have gone without.

For many years in the past I have spent many nights with these boys, watching them fix toys of all kinds for Sierra Madre youngsters so as to make their Christmas day happy. Many of these toys, when finished, looked like gifts from a department store Santa Claus. I have seen expressions on youngsters' faces when these gifts were received which makes me realize why the boys of the Fire Department.

ment continue year after year.

For years these boys have been filling baskets with complete dinners for Christmas for many families who might otherwise have sat down to a far from festive table. It is a Sierra Madre tradition, a gesture in which the Department takes a great deal of pride. This, of course, requires a little outside financial aid which is the reason for this letter. When the Fire Department boys call at your home to sell tickets for the Firemen's Christmas Ball you are buying yourself not only an enjoyable evening but also the privilege of sharing in the Firemen's annual gesture of making Christmas in Sierra Madre a happy one for all. Remember the Firemen protect our lives and properties 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. We as citizens can show our appreciation once a year by making the Firemen's Ball a success.

Very truly

ADOBE SOIL WILL NOT MAKE ADOBE HOUSE

Adobe clay will not make good houses; the prospective builder should have tests made to determine the characteristics of his soil.

This is one of the bits of advice on adobe construction given in Bulletin 472 of the University of California College of Agriculture.

The publication may be obtained from the office of any county advisor or from the Public Service office, Giannini Hall, College of Agriculture, Berkeley.

Uncle Sam Says

Someday you'll be slipping away the calendar for 1956! You'll be singing at the top of your voice, "Happy New Year—a prosperous 1957." It could be both a happy and prosperous 1957 for everyone but you unless you start doing something about it now. Even by investing as little as $3.75 a week out of earnings through the Payroll Savings Plan your nest egg in United States Savings Bonds on New Year's Day 10 years hence will reach the tidy total of $2,163.45. Meantime you will be building up a reserve in savings bonds, payable on demand, to deal with emergencies.

FIRE FLAMES

Five Fridays in November prolonged the interval between drills and meetings. The time however, afforded the men more evening time to get around their respective territories to visit those who are seeking an opportunity to buy tickets for the GREAT EVENT. Folks are more than nice about having the firemen come to their homes. One lady called to the door was surprised to find a photographer there to take her picture and altho' without her permission, she took the whole affair good naturedly. Such occurrence are our source of encouragement to continue with the annual DANCE and CARD PARTY.

Another month without a fire call is delightful news and gives us a good feeling. Fire Prevention must have its effect. It takes little fire to develop into a large one and it must be that little ones are being taken care of by extinguishment. To keep calm Famous Coach Former Resident Dies At Olympia, Wash.

Sierra Madre and the football world felt a great loss in the passing of W. L. Stanton at the home of his son in Olympia, Washington Thanksgiving day. Death came suddenly, as Mr. Stanton had attended an exhibition of his favorite game, football, that afternoon. Coach Stanton, better known as "Fox" began his colorful career in 1892 as half-back and captain of the Drexel Institute team in Philadelphia. After coaching at Pomona College and Occidental he was called to Caltech in 1920 from which he retired in 1941 after being teacher of football for more than four decades. He was recognized by many football experts as one of the smartest coaches in the business. During his career at Caltech he moved his family to Sierra Madre, serving for a short period on the library board here. Four years ago he and Mrs. Stanton moved to Paso Robles, from which home the funeral services were conducted Monday. Mr. Stanton is survived by his wife, a son, Layton of Olympia, Washington, a sister, Mrs. Walter B. Cole of Pasadena and a stepson, Clark Freeman, of Pasadena. Mrs. Stanton was with him at the time of his death.

Rubber was not used commercially in Europe until three centuries after it was noted by Columbus during his second visit to South America, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica. Even then it was not marketed for its elastic properties, but to rub out pencil marks, hence its name.

No hope for effort.

DR. IRWIN A. MOON, of Moody Bible Institute, seen above in one of his "Sermons from Science" demonstrations, is the producer of the sound color film "The God of Creation" to be shown at 8 o'clock, Monday evening, Dec. 9, at the Sierra Madre School Auditorium, sponsored by the Christ For Sierra Madre Committee.

Good Taste
THEN and NOW

IN ALL CIVILIZED PERIODS OF HISTORY, SILVERWARE HAS BEEN THE MARK OF SOCIAL REFINEMENT.

EARLIEST SILVERSMITHS WERE EGYPTIANS. THEY SPECIALIZED IN SPOONS, INCLUDING SPOONS FOR COSMETICS.

ROMAN EMPERORS BESTOWED SILVER DISHES ENGRAVED WITH THEIR PORTRAITS UPON EMINENT OFFICIALS.

KING JAMES I. WAS RIDICULED FOR INTRODUCING INTO ENGLAND "THOSE ITALIAN NEATNESSES CALLED FORKS." BUT THE FAD STUCK.

TODAY'S SILVERWARE, RANGING FROM THE ORNATE TO MODERN SIMPLICITY, STILL INDICATES A FAMILY'S TASTE AND DISTINCTION.

SHOULDA-LIFT is adjustable. Beneath a dress or sweater, it will broaden the lines of a narrow shoulder, and thus give the illusion of narrowing the waist and hips. If one shoulder is lower than the other, it takes care of that, too. SHOULDA-LIFT IS adjustable.

Many Essays Turned in on "Wings for Nickle"

The essays have been turned in on the "Wings for a Nickle" contest at the post office and postmaster Durning says the response was remarkable. The essays have been placed in the hands of the judges and the announcement of the three winners will be made in the issue of the News December 12th.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 460
AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SIERRA MADRE PERTAINING TO THE COLLECTION OF GARBAGE, NON-COMBUSTIBLE HOUSEHOLD REFUSE, TRIMMINGS AND COMBUSTIBLE MATERIALS, AND PROVIDING FOR THE COLLECTION THEREOF AND FOR FEES TO BE PAID FOR THE SERVICES IN CONNECTION WITH SUCH COLLECTIONS.

The City Council of the City of Sierra Madre does ordain as follows:

Section 1. DEFINITIONS. Unless it is apparent from the context that another meaning is intended, the following words and terms as used herein shall have the meaning attached to them by this Section.

A. "Person" shall mean and shall include firms, corporations, associations, partnerships, societies, church organizations and individuals.

B. "City" shall mean the City of Sierra Madre.

C. "Garbage" shall mean and shall include refuse, accumulations of animal, fruit or vegetable matter that attend the preparation, use, cooking, consumption, decay, dealing in or storage of meats, fish, fowl, fruits or vegetables.

D. "Trimnings and Combustible Materials" shall mean and include all refuse, paper, wood, packing materials, rags, garden and lawn trimmings, leaves and other combustible waste materials which may be readily consumed by fire.

E. "Non-combustible Household Refuse" shall mean and include bottles, cans, jars, crockery and similar non-combustibles which shall accumulate from general household use. It shall not include automobile parts or unusually large or weighty items.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of every tenant, lessee or occupant of any private dwelling house, or of the manager or person in charge of every hotel, restaurant, eating house, boarding house or other building where meals are furnished, and of the owner of every flat, court, or apartment house and of every other person having garbage for disposal, to provide without expense to the City and to at all times keep within said building or on the lot on which said building or buildings are situated, suitable and sufficient water-tight garbage receptacles equipped with suitable handles and lids. Each such receptacle shall have a tight fitting cover for receiving and holding without leakage or escape of odors all the garbage which would ordinarily accumulate in said building, buildings or on said lot in a period of one week. Receptacles for garbage for each private dwelling, duplex, flat and apartment house shall have a capacity of not less than 3 gallons nor more than 16 gallons. Receptacles for garbage from all other places shall have a capacity of not less than 10 gallons nor more than 16 gallons. It shall be unlawful to keep, place or deposit garbage on private premises, except in the type and size of receptacles specified herein. Receptacles for garbage shall not contain any paper except such reasonable amount thereof as shall be necessary to line the container or receptacle itself.

Non-combustible household rubbish as hereinabove defined, shall be placed in not more than two boxes, barrels or other substantial containers of not more than 2 1/2 cubic feet capacity each, which shall also be the medium for billing and collecting garbage, combustible and non-combustible materials fees, during the months in which the bill is rendered.

When the regular water bill is rendered for a particular location and there appears thereon a charge for garbage, combustible and non-combustible materials collection, the total sum shown on said bill shall be paid as a unit and all of the provisions of Ordinance Number 224 and the amendments thereto pertaining to collection of fees for water service shall apply to the total amount shown on the statement for both water service and garbage, combustible and non-combustible materials collection service, except that the provision authorizing a cash discount of 25c upon the payment of water bills if paid on or before the 15th day of the month following presentation shall not apply to the portion of said bill for such other services.

Where garbage, combustible and non-combustible materials are collected at locations where water is not consumed, a separate monthly bill shall be presented to the person liable for the services charged. The collection of such charges shall be governed by the provisions of the general law.

Section 12. The City Council may from time to time by resolution adopted at any regular meeting of such City Council, specify by rules and regulations the days, hours and manner of the collection of garbage, combustible and non-combustible materials in the City.

Section 13. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500.00 or by imprisonment in the City Jail or in the County Jail of the County of Los Angeles for not more than three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 14. If any provision of this Ordinance or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the Ordinance or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected.

Section 15. This Ordinance shall become effective January 1, 1947.

Section 16. The City Clerk shall attest and certify to the adoption of this Ordinance and shall cause the same to be published once in the Sierra Madre News, a weekly newspaper published and circulated in the said City of Sierra Madre.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing Ordinance was adopted by the City Council of the City of Sierra Madre at a regular meeting of said City Council held on the 26th day of November, 1946, by the following vote:

AYES: Councilmen Hoegge, Schultz, Froehlich and Steinberger.

NOES: None.

ABSENT: Councilman Nuetzel.

Signed and approved this 26th day of November, 1946:

tinell and Leila Embree, organist. Five rays of the star taking office were Adah Patsy Carlson with Alberta Worthington, as proxy. Ruth Patsy Haymaker, Esther Grace Hinton; Martha Florence Day; and Dallas Douglas as Electa.

Clarence Sandage was flag bearer for the escort of matrons and patrons of 1947. Frances Brain was chairman of installation, Marian Lackey, the chairman of reception, while Harold Roberts, Boyd Keith, Maynard Baker and Jack Otten were ushers.

Bessesess, also given in white, were Christine Meader, Leola Lyon, Effie Milton, Allene Welch, Tillie Froehlich, Edna Stamps.

Section 10. The fees provided for herein shall be charged and billed as a monthly service charge. No credit shall be allowed for a portion of a month's service. The City Treasurer shall be responsible for all monies collected and shall deposit the same in the General Fund of the City.

Where it can be shown that garbage, combustible and non-combustible collection services are not required, and a survey or inspection of the premises bears out such fact, the Street Superintendent or such other person as the City Council may from time to time designate, may hereby empowered to cancel or adjust such charges in a proper and equitable manner.

Section 11. The method of collecting the fees provided for herein shall be as follows:

The City owns and operates the City water system. Bills are sent out by the City each month for water consumed. It is hereby determined by said City Council that the bills for water service shall also be the medium for billing and collecting garbage, combustible and non-combustible materials fees, during the months in which the bill is rendered.

When the regular water bill is rendered for a particular location and there appears thereon a charge for garbage, combustible and non-combustible materials collection, the total sum shown on said bill shall be paid as a unit and all of the provisions of Ordinance Number 224 and the amendments thereto pertaining to collection of fees for water service shall apply to the total amount shown on the statement for both water service and garbage, combustible and non-combustible materials collection service, except that the provision authorizing a cash discount of 25c upon the payment of water bills if paid on or before the 15th day of the month following presentation shall not apply to the portion of said bill for such other services.

Where garbage, combustible and non-combustible materials are collected at locations where water is not consumed, a separate monthly bill shall be presented to the person liable for the services charged. The collection of such charges shall be governed by the provisions of the general law.

Section 12. The City Council may from time to time by resolution adopted at any regular meeting of such City Council, specify by rules and regulations the days, hours and manner of the collection of garbage, combustible and non-combustible materials in the City.

Notice is hereby given by the undersigned, BEN H. BROWN, Administrator of the Estate of Zemoske Torii, deceased, to the Creditors of, and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to present them with the necessary vouchers within six months after the first publication of this notice, to the said Administrator at his office at 524 North Spring St., Los Angeles 12, California, which said office the undersigned selects as a place of business in all matters connected with said estate, or to file them with the necessary vouchers, within six months after the first publication of this notice, in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles.

Dated November 25, 1946.
BEN H. BROWN,
Public Administrator,
County of Los Angeles.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 460
AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SIERRA MADRE PERTAINING TO THE COLLECTION OF GARBAGE, NON-COMBUSTIBLE HOUSEHOLD REFUSE, TRIMMINGS AND COMBUSTIBLE MATERIALS, AND PROVIDING FOR THE COLLECTION THEREOF AND FOR FEES TO BE PAID FOR THE SERVICES IN CONNECTION WITH SUCH COLLECTIONS.

The City Council of the City of Sierra Madre does ordain as follows:

Section 1. DEFINITIONS. Unless it is apparent from the context that another meaning is intended, the following words and terms as used herein shall have the meaning attached to them by this Section.

A. "Person" shall mean and shall include firms, corporations, associations, partnerships, societies, church organizations and individuals.

B. "City" shall mean the City of Sierra Madre.

Here's Soap Recipe; Why Not Try It?

Grandma's old soap recipe seems to have new interest as we search the grocery shelves for anything that looks like soap. Up until now we have thumbed over the old cook book and glanced at the soap making with an aloof feeling but really it appears simple enough and I shall try it and pass the recipe on to you.

The home made soap averages about one cent a bar and with a few simple utensils you can make a several months' supply.

The recipe:
5½ pounds of waste fat.
1 cup ammonia.
1 cup powdered borax.
1 can lye.
1 ounce oil of sassafras.

Add fat to water and boil to remove salt. Skim off when cool. Should be done the day before the rest of the process.

Dissolve lye in three pints of hot water and cool to lukewarm. Remelt grease, add borax and mix. Add ammonia, and mix again. Now add lye water to dissolve the grease, and then add oil of sassafras, which cuts fatty odor and improves fragrance. Stir at least half an hour, and continue to stir from time to time until it begins to harden. The longer the stirring the whiter the soap will be and lighter. Pour soap into a cardboard box or metal container and keep in a warm place for two days. Scoring with a knife before soap is hard will help make bars break easier. For best results let soap stand two months before using.

OLIVES REQUIRE SPECIAL CARE IN PREPARATION

With the olive crop ripening fast, a warning against improper curing and processing of olives was issued to housewives of Los Angeles county by the Los Angeles county health department.

Olives, a low-acid food, are highly susceptible to food poisoning caused by botulism bacteria. When home-canned, even in a pressure cooker with a brine or other liquid, they should be boiled 15 minutes before tasing or feeding to others, the inspector pointed out.

If home-cured or home-processed olives are moldy, soft, or rancid smelling, they should be destroyed either by burning or as sewage and not fed to animals or poultry. If they are tainted with botulism, the food poisoning will kill whatever consumes them.

SMAC DEFEATS ALTADENA 10-2, PLAY-OFF DEC. 15

In a fast game which left no doubt as to the probable outcome, the Sierra Madre Athletic Club baseball team defeated the Altadena Lions by a score of 10 to 2, Sunday afternoon at the County park in Arcadia.

Joe Grippi pitched for Sierra Madre, letting go a fast barrage which dazzled the Altadenans. Dick Lambert was the game's leading batter, getting three hits for five time at the plate.

This was the last regular game for the local team, which on December 15 is scheduled to play Verdugo Hills for the Junior Major League championship.

Design of the giant 120-inch telescope for the University of California's Lick Observatory at Mount Hamilton is well advanced.

SHEARED BEAVER — What pert young college miss wouldn't find this I. J. Fox sheared beaver coat just the thing for a busy school life. Helen Parrish, star of the NBC television show "Hour Glass," wears it over a tailored beige wool dress which enhances the soft muted brown tone of the fur.

CRUISE LINE — What could be better for a vacation in the South or California this winter than a neutral gabardine coat dress like this one worn by Mary Meade, singer on NBC's "Duffy's Tavern." The dress, designed by DeDe Johnson, has Dolman type sleeves and the pocket flaps, which are repeated in back, are new style notes. The dress is photographed at the entrance to China House in Los Angeles' Farmer's Market.

HEADED SOUTH — Just the thing for a vacation in the sunny south or warm California is this coral gabardine dress modeled by Mary Meade, singer on NBC's "Duffy's Tavern." The dress, designed by Joseph Zukin, is trimmed in smoked pearl buttons and worn with black accessories and neutral pigskin gloves. Mary's bag is monogrammed in gold nailheads.

MIX MATES — Barbara Fuller of NBC's "One Man's Family" models a three piece ensemble designed by Lou Van Roy for Joseph Zukin. The bolero and skirt have matching slacks.

Burr-- FOOD FROZEN

By Fridge and Frost

Four score and 15 days ago two cold blooded individuals decided the need for a complete frozen foods market in this vicinity was sorely needed.

Thus conceived in a freezer and dedicated in quality, they set forth to bring about just such an establishment.

This they did, and the re-birth of such is located at 3741 E. Colorado Blvd.—not completely signed and decorated, but it is an education to the housewife as they offer over 150 different frozen food items.

When the puzzled and honored housewife wondereth just what to serve to appease the ever open mouths and the never ending appetites of offspring and fathers, they should visit and shop at the ICEBOX.

So put on your new Frilly bonnet with goodness knows what's on it and sashay towards this Frozen Palace to see for yourselves what the use of electricity and synthetic ice can do to make your shopping agreeable and easy.

Seriously, they invite you to drop in and look over their establishment and get acquainted.

Let ye forget it is at 3741 E. Colorado Blvd. near Rosemead.

CAMERA TOPICS

by T. T. Holden*

Stalking a pet with flashgun always takes patience and stamina. But this Speed Graphic photo by George Brown is typical of the results you can get this way.

TWO APPROACHES TO CUTE ANIMAL PICTURES

Last week we offered some suggestions for making good dog pictures. The next logical question is what about kittens, puppies and other animals that just won't cooperate by staying in one position or responding to commands. They are harder to work with, but not impossible as evidenced by the many fine shots of kittens and puppies you see in magazines and newspapers.

Your best bet is to put the animal on a small sturdy table or box that will limit the distance toward and away from the camera it can wander. Cover the table first with a sheet, blanket or other plain cloth of a color that contrasts well with the animal. Then get your camera and lighting all set before you put your subject in position. If you put the table in a corner you can cut off two sides of escape, but you may have trouble with shadows on the walls. It's better to have an assistant handy to keep the animal from jumping down and to attract its attention with food or some other bait.

Instead of just taking a "portrait" of the animal, why not give it something to eat or play with. This will not only keep its attention from wandering, but also give you lots of opportunities to catch cute expressions and poses.

Use the fastest possible shutter speed and try for a lens aperture that will let you keep the whole table top in focus at once. This will help prevent the danger of blurred pictures.

Don't be stingy with your film. It may take you ten or twelve shots to get one or two really cute ones. You just have to keep on your toes and click the shutter whenever you see a good possibility. Try to anticipate each picture, for you have only a split-second to catch a pose before it is lost.

If you have a great deal of patience and a flash synchronizer on your camera, you might try another approach: stalking the animal around the house and just watching for good picture situations. Lots of professionals work this way successfully, but it takes a tremendous amount of persistence and energy to do a good job.

Russia Seeks to Rule World Cardinal Spellman Charges

Only Bat-Blind Fail To Realize Communists Have Invaded U. S. Prelate Declares; Opposes Soviet-imposed Peace

NEW YORK—Francis Cardinal Spellman today sounded a solemn warning to the American people that Soviet Russia is bent on world domination and declared that only the bat-blind can fail to be aware of the Communist invasion of the United States.

"Every Communist is a potential enemy of the United States and only the bat-blind can fail to be aware of the Communist invasion of our country," Cardinal Spellman declares in an article "Do We Want a Soviet Peace?" which he wrote for the November issue of Cosmopolitan magazine.

Decrying the "arrogant attitudes and belligerent acts" that are "signs and symbols of a Soviet Peace," Cardinal Spellman warns against appeasement of Russia, which would enchain America and other Democratic nations of the world.

"Today like a chilling mist there hangs over the Democratic nations the menace of a 'Pax Sovietica' which, if we submit to it, will commit our children to serfdom in a world itself enchained," the Cardinal declares.

"Soviet Russia is building an empire which covers nearly ten million square miles—one-sixth of the land surface of the earth—much surpassing even the Nazi totalitarian conquests and ambitions," he continues.

"And if, by appeasement, we condone a Soviet peace, we not only embolden the aggressor, but we weaken America and sacrifice nations too small, too frail to defend themselves, nations whose sacred trusteeships we pledged ourselves to protect."

Cardinal Spellman likens the present attempts of Soviet Russia to impose a Soviet peace on the world to the "Pax Tatarica" imposed after the Mongol hordes of Genghis Khan overran Europe.

"Peace came then too—a brutal peace based on the complete captity of the vanquished," he declares. "And today, seven centuries later, a mighty dread of the re-birth of 'Pax Tatarica' assails me, a fear that through an identical insane, pagan pattern of despotism, destruction and death, a 'Pax Sovietica' is being imposed upon Europe, with the goal of the dictators, One World—Theirs."

While Russia sabotages a just peace with the intention of creating chaos to spread Communism, the United States is failing to guard our own nation against the wedge of American Communism, designed to divide and destroy the United States, Cardinal Spellman charges.

"Our ally in war has not remained our ally for peace and today Soviet Russia stands charged with being the saboteur of a just peace, her aim—world communism," Cardinal Spellman declares.

"We Americans talk of these great and grave dangers menacing the world, while we neglect to guard our own nation against the threat, the terrible tragedy, that we may fail to remain fundamentally these United States."

"The wedge dividing us is American Communism, and Soviet imperialism is its puppeteer. Either Americanism or communism may predominate, but never can they become reconciled."

Pre-War Scenic Trips Resumed by Santa Fe

Rail fans and camera club members of the Los Angeles area on Sunday, December 15, will make their first special excursion on the Santa Fe Railway Coast Lines since the pre-war days of 1941.

The one-day outing will include a trip over Santa Fe's first district to San Bernardino via Pasadena with a side trip to San Jacinto, returning over the second district through Riverside and Santa Ana Canyon.

Approximately 300 railroad and photography enthusiasts are expected to ride the special train leaving Los Angeles at 8 a. m. making 30-minute stops at San Bernardino, San Jacinto and Riverside, and arriving back in Los Angeles at 5:30 p. m. Information on the excursion may be obtained from any Santa Fe ticket office.

Hatch-Swanson Wedding Solemnized at Pasadena Presbyterian Church Friday

More than a hundred friends and relatives attended the wedding Friday evening at the Presbyterian Church of Pasadena, when Marguerite Marie Swanson became the bride of Robert G. Hatch of Los Angeles.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Swanson of San Gabriel Court, was lovely as she met her future husband at the church altar and was given away by her father. Her gown was white satin with the court train. The full length veil was held in place with pearls and she carried a large streamer bouquet of white gardenias centered with orchids.

Vera May Swanson was her sister's maid of honor and she chose a net and lace dress in pink and carried sweet peas. Mary Louise Grevillot and Emma Tories were maids of honor and were attired in like gowns and also carried bouquets of sweet peas.

The bride's mother wore a shell pink formal for her daughter's wedding with the corsage of red roses. The best man was Richard Hatch, brother of the bridegroom. The young people will be at home in Sierra Madre following a week's trip at the sea shore.

Thanksgiving Dinner Fetes 32nd Wedding

The Hugo G. Maurers, 175 North Mountain Trail, celebrated their wedding anniversary on Thanksgiving Day, which occurred 32 years ago in Detroit by entertaining their five children and grandchildren and Mrs. Maurer's mother, Mrs. Augusta Kostrach, who is in her 90th year. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Maurer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Maurer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo G. Maurer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Foltz and family and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Howstein, all of Glendale.

Announce Sale of Gallery Exhibit by Dr. Bernhardt Wall

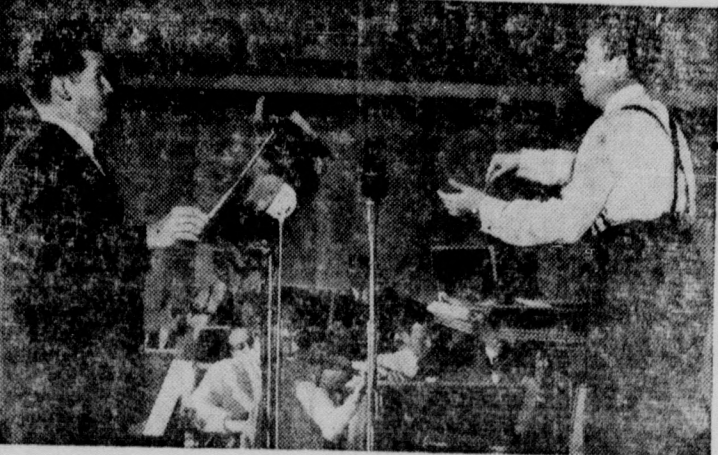

A Bernhardt Wall etching of Abraham Lincoln, on display in the City Hall Art Gallery, was sold last week to a local woman who requested that her name be withheld.

This etching, a frontal view of Lincoln, is one of few life size sketches which have been done of the great president. It is being packed for shipment to Honolulu, where it is going as a gift to a friend of the purchaser.

Dr. Wall's own edition of his nine pound volume of etchings, "Following Abraham Lincoln", was shipped last week to the Library of Northwestern University, at Evanston, Illinois on request of a prominent friend of the University.

RIFLE CLUB TO TAKE PART IN RECORD SHOOT

An all day Record Shoot is scheduled on Sunday, December 8, for members of the Santa Anita Rifle Club of Sierra Madre, R. D. Shipway, sponsor of the organization, announced this week.

However, only those members who attend the second meeting of the Rifle Club Friday will be held at the Burbank Rifle Range.

Rifle Club members are required to try for a record at stated intervals, and this will be the first such event of the season for the local club.

Fifteen members attended the Club's first meeting of the season last Friday in the City Hall Dugout.

ASK-MASTER — Joe Kelly, the dean of NBC's "Quiz Kids" Sunday program, won his cap and gown the hard way. He quit school at 11, went into vaudeville, and he says—learned arithmetic by reading rail schedules and double-checking his hotel bills.

HONEYMOON SINGER — Dreamy-eyed Marcia Neil is the "singing bride" of NBC's "Honeymoon in New York." She is happily married to radio producer Bill Patterson.

A YOUNG COWHAND — A modified version of a cowboy's outfit is worn by NBC's Joan Patsy Flicker. Joan, like rodeo star, Wag Blessing, she is talking to, wears a bright plaid shirt and Levi's. Like most teen-agers nowadays, this outfit is Joan's after school uniform, so she felt right at home in Madison Square Garden posing for fashion pictures during rodeo week.

doubled, a new Sunday school building erected in '39; the Hammond Memorial organ installed, the gift of the late Lt. Comdr. Joseph Storm; and a residence purchased for the minister's use. Mr. Sheriff has officiated at 61 weddings during his stay and 135 funerals.

When Rev. and Mrs. Sheriff came to Sierra Madre their daughter, Mary, was 16, the son, David, 12 and their 3rd child, Eugene, is a native Sierra Madrean. Miss Sheriff is attending the Johns Hopkins School of Nursing at Baltimore, Maryland and David, who was married last summer resides in Monrovia.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheriff have requested that no farewell reception be given for them as they leave the city. They say it is only a short distance, as the crow flies, to their future home and they will expect to have the latch string out for the people of Sierra Madre whom they have learned to love and appreciate.
